David:

Can we set up a call with Karen Walter to discuss getting the evidentiary documents to us? I wanted to ask a few questions about the best way to achieve our objectives, and I think Karen would be very helpful. Bob Werner would like to sit in on it as well. Please let me know if y'all are available

Thursday or Friday. If neither of those days work, let me know about next week. Thank you for your assistance.

Amy, attached is an electronic version of the spreadsheet we shared during the meeting. Unfortunately, the nature of the material disposed at the site is not readily available. They would have to look at each individual allocation and source documents to gather that information.
